This Code of Conduct is formed for the purpose of:

- (i) Prevention of Insider Trading;
- (ii) Regulation, Monitoring and Reporting of the transactions done by the Designated Persons;
- (iii) To preserve the confidentiality of unpublished price sensitive information and to ensure fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and adhering to the Code of Practices for Fair disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information;
- (iv) To ensure timely and adequate disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to the investor community by the Company to enable them to take informed investment decisions with regard to the Company's Securities.

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) has formulated the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 ("Insider Trading Regulations") as amended from time to time.
- 1.2 Insider trading means 'trading' / dealing in 'Securities' of a Company by its Directors, Designated Persons, Employees or other 'Insiders' based on 'Unpublished Price Sensitive Information'. Such activities by Insiders erode the investors' confidence in the integrity of the management and are unhealthy for the capital markets. The Insider Trading Regulations prohibits an Insider of a Company to deal in the securities of such Company while in possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. The Insider Trading Regulations also prohibits an Insider to 'communicate, counsel or procure', whether 'directly or indirectly', any unpublished price sensitive information to any person including insiders, who while in possession of such information may 'deal' in the securities of the Company listed or proposed to be listed. Every Director, Officer, Designated Person, Employee of the Company has a duty to safeguard the confidentiality of all the information obtained during the course of his /her employment at or association with the Company.

- 15.1 Under Regulation 8(1) of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, the principles for fair disclosure, in terms of the Code adopted by the Company are as follows:
- a. The Company shall promptly make public disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information that would impact price discovery, as soon as it has credible and concrete information, in order to make such information generally available. Such disclosures shall be subject to internal corporate approvals and made through the authorized personnel of the Company. If any such information is accidentally disclosed without such approval, the person making such disclosure shall immediately inform the designated officer.
 - b. The Company shall make uniform and universal dissemination of unpublished price sensitive information to avoid selective disclosure.
 - c. The Company Secretary and Compliance Officer or such other person, as may be appointed by the Board shall serve as Chief Investors Relation Officer and is authorised for the purposes of this Code to deal with dissemination of information and disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information.
 - d. The Company shall make prompt dissemination of unpublished price sensitive information that gets disclosed selectively, inadvertently or otherwise if at all, to make such information generally available.
 - e. The Company shall make appropriate and fair response to queries on news reports and requests for verification of market rumour(s) by regulatory authorities.

- f. The Company shall ensure that information shared with analysts and research personnel is not unpublished price sensitive information. The Company shall endeavour that, where any unpublished price sensitive information is to be disclosed, before discussing or disclosing any such information to analysts or at any meeting, first the information be provided to the stock exchanges and where applicable, appropriate press releases be made, before any such meetings.
- g. The Company shall develop best practices to make available transcripts or records of proceedings of meetings with analysts and other investor relations conferences, on the website of the Company to ensure official confirmation and documentation of disclosures made.
- h. The Company shall handle all unpublished price sensitive information on a need-to know basis.
- i. Any subsequent modification(s) and amendment(s) to Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, to that extent, shall automatically apply to this Code

15.2 Disclosure and dissemination of UPSI with special reference to analysts/investors meet:

- a. Whenever the Company proposes to organise analyst/investor meet, the Company shall make a press release or post relevant information on its website.
- b. No person, except those authorized by either the head of Investor Relations/Compliance Officer/head of Corporate Communication shall disclose any information relating to the Securities of the Company to the analysts/investors. Directors and Employees of the Company shall provide information available in public domain while dealing with analysts/investors and may share any information relating to or comment on any trends in the industry/economy/geo-political situation.

15.3 Sharing of information for legitimate purpose:

- a. The SEBI (Prevention of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, require the Board of Directors to formulate a policy for determination of 'legitimate purpose', in line with the guidance provided in the Insider Trading Regulations. The assessment of whether sharing of UPSI for a particular instance would tantamount to 'legitimate purpose' would depend on the specific facts and circumstances of each case. Accordingly, this Policy only sets out the principles that should be considered while assessing if the purpose for which UPSI is proposed to be shared is "legitimate".
- b. Legitimate Purpose” shall mean sharing of UPSI in the ordinary course of business or on a need-to know basis. The Company may share the UPSI if required in the interest of the Company.

Legitimate Purpose shall inter-alia include sharing of UPSI on need to know basis by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of the Regulations. (Regulation 3(2A) and 3(2B)).

- c. In following cases which are illustrative in nature, sharing of UPSI would be considered as legitimate purpose:
- (i) For investigation, inquiry or request for information by statutory or governmental authorities or any other administrative body recognized by law; Example: Any call for information or query received from Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Income Tax Authority, Securities and Exchange Board of India (“SEBI”), Stock Exchanges, Reserve Bank of India, Sectoral Regulatory Body, etc.
 - (ii) Under any proceedings or pursuant to any order of courts or tribunals; Example: National Company Law Tribunal, National Company Law Appellate Tribunal, Quasi-judicial authority, Other Appellate Tribunals, Arbitration Proceedings, etc.
 - (iii) As part of compliance with applicable laws, regulations, rules and requirements; Example: Company Law, Securities Law, Income Tax Law, Banking Law, etc.
 - (iv) Arising out of any contractual obligations or arrangement entered by the Company set forth in any contract, agreement, arrangement, settlement, understanding or undertaking. Example: Due-diligence for any kind of restructuring, namely mergers & acquisitions, joint venture agreements, share purchase agreements, franchisee agreement, etc.
 - (v) Arising out of business requirement including requirement for the purposes of promoting the business and Strategies of business which may require sharing of information with Promoters and Promoters in turn with their Promoters on need to know basis.

Some of the examples which are illustrative in nature are as mentioned below:

- Sharing the relevant UPSI by Company or Promoter(s) for advice, consultation, valuation, fund raising or other intermediation and approvals in relation to the subject matter of a proposed deal/assignment/tie-up/venture/fund raising;
- Sharing the relevant UPSI by Company or Promoter(s) with intermediaries, fiduciaries, merchant bankers, advisors, lawyers, bankers, consultants, valuers, auditors, insolvency professionals, business support agents, transaction processing service providers in order to avail professional services from them;
- Sharing the relevant UPSI by Company or Promoter(s) for advice, consultation, transaction support, intermediation and approvals on projects relating to enterprise transformation, strategy, change management, analytics, re-organization, operation improvement, technology and similar domains;
- Sharing the relevant UPSI by Company or Promoter(s) with business partners essential to fulfil the terms and conditions of a business contract with a client, vendor, collaborator or lender;

- Sharing the relevant UPSI by Company or Promoter(s) for advice, consultation, transaction support, intermediation and approvals in the process of evaluation of new products, business opportunities and new lines of business.
- Sharing the relevant UPSI by Company or Promoter(s) for statutory consolidation requirements or related customary disclosure obligations.
- Sharing the relevant UPSI by Company or Promoter(s) with persons engaged or involved in the processes leading to disclosure of events set out in Schedule III to SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015;

Note: Any person in receipt of UPSI pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered an “insider” for purposes of the Regulations and shall comply with the Code.

- d. Primarily, the following factors should be considered while sharing UPSI:
 - (i) whether sharing of such information is in the ordinary course of business of the Company;
 - (ii) whether information is sought to be shared to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of the Insider Trading Regulations;
 - (iii) whether sharing the information is in the best interests of the Company or in furtherance of a genuine commercial purpose;
 - (iv) whether the information is required to be shared for enabling the Company to discharge its legal obligations;
 - (v) whether the nature of information being shared is commensurate to the purpose for which access is sought to be provided to the recipient.
- e. It is clarified that in the event there exist multiple purposes for sharing UPSI, each purpose will be evaluated on its own merits, in line with the aforementioned principles.
- f. If at any time, any person is in receipt of UPSI pursuant to a legitimate purpose, he shall be considered as an "Insider" for purposes of this Code, and the Insider Trading Regulations.
- g. The Company shall inform the recipient of UPSI, by way of written intimation and/ or contractual agreement, such as, confidentiality agreement or non - disclosure agreement, that: (i) the information being shared is UPSI and that the Company is the exclusive owner of such UPSI; (ii) upon receipt of UPSI, the recipient would be deemed to be an Insider and subject to the provisions of the Insider Trading Regulations, (iii) the recipient must maintain confidentiality of the UPSI at all times, (iv) the recipient may use the UPSI only for the approved purposes for which it was disclosed; and (v) the recipient must extend all cooperation to the Company, as may be required in this regard.

- h. In this regard, adequate systems and controls shall be put in place to ensure compliance with the Insider Trading Regulations towards sharing of UPSI for legitimate purposes, including the maintenance of a structured digital database as stipulated in the Code of Internal Procedures and Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of Trading by Insiders.
- i. Upon failure of such person to maintain confidentiality of such UPSI, appropriate action may be taken by the Company as stipulated under Code of Internal Procedures and conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of trading by Insiders.
